

Beginner's Guide to Playing Golf in Mallorca

Everything you need to know before your first round in Mallorca. Whether you're nervous or new to holiday golf, this guide covers the five best beginner courses, what to bring, what to expect, and answers to common questions.

5 Best Beginner Courses

Palma Pitch & Putt — €20–€25 | Difficulty 1/10

Central, par-3 focused, no long drives. Perfect starter round.

Santa Ponsa 3 — €75–€125 | Difficulty 5/10

Public access, flat, forgiving. Great for 18-hole confidence-builder.

Son Quint — €65–€95 | Difficulty 5/10

Near Palma, manageable par-4s, good facilities. Accessible difficulty.

Son Antem East — €70–€100 | Difficulty 5/10

Resort course, buggy-friendly, coaching available. Gentle terrain.

Golf Pollença — €65–€110 | Difficulty 6/10

Less crowded, beautiful setting, scenery + slight challenge.

What to Bring

Golf gear: Clubs (rent €30–€40), shoes, balls, tees. Clothing: Hat, sunscreen (essential), light layers, trousers/shorts, collared shirt. Accessories: Water bottle, snacks, towel, phone. Optional: Golf glove, alignment stick, notebook for scores.

What to Expect on the Day

Before: Arrive 30 mins early. Check in. Warm up at range (€3–€5). On course: Respect pace of play. 4-5 hours for 18 holes.

Lunch: Halfway house, 15 mins. After: Cool drink at bar. Many courses have lounges.

FAQ

Do I need a handicap? No, not at beginner courses. Some premium courses (Son Gual, Alcanada) may require one.

Can I walk? Yes, most beginner courses are walkable. Buggy optional (€35–€45/round).

How much for club hire? €30–€40/round. Quality varies; ask the pro for beginner-friendly sets.

How long does 18 holes take? 4–5 hours at beginner pace. Pitch & Putt: 2 hours.

Can non-golfers come? Yes. Partners can ride in buggy or relax at clubhouse/spa.

Next Step: Play With A Pro

Want personalized coaching? Andy offers Play With A Pro experiences. A PGA Advanced Professional joins you for 18 holes with course management tips and post-round debrief.