MR MALLORCA GOLF

7-Day Mallorca Golf Itinerary

A sample week from a Palma hotel, with four planned rounds, a rest day and optional golf around arrival and departure. Change the length and pace to suit your group. This is an example, not a fixed trip or booking.

Day 1: arrive and settle in

Leave time for the flight, luggage and check-in. A short round is optional once the arrival time and daylight are known.

Day 2: Santa Ponsa 1

Santa Ponsa 1: €77 to €126 green fee; 18 holes, par 72; about 25 minutes from Palma. M 36 / W 36; certificate required. A full round near the southwest. Choose tees for the group and leave the evening open.

Day 3: Son Gual

Son Gual: €115 to €165 green fee; 18 holes, par 72; about 20 minutes from Palma. M 28 / W 36; certificate required. Put the more technical round after the group has settled. Play With A Pro can be discussed for this day.

Day 4: a day without a tee time

Keep the day for Palma, a coastal visit or a quieter afternoon.

Day 5: Alcanada

Alcanada: €115 to €230 green fee; 18 holes, par 72; about 50 minutes from Palma. M 33 / W 35; certificate required. Give the northern round its own day. Check the drive and tee time before adding evening plans.

Day 6: Son Vida

Son Vida: €84 to €190 green fee; 18 holes, par 70 or 71, depending on the layout; about 15 minutes from Palma. M 54 / W 54; certificate required. Return to golf near Palma. Keep the course choice flexible for the group and the week's weather.

Day 7: departure

Only add another round if the flight time leaves space for golf, traffic, returning a hire car and airport check-in. An early flight means no golf.

A Palma base and two meal ideas

Stay: Hotel Saratoga. A central Palma hotel for evenings in the city. Each round in this example needs a drive; it is not a course-side base. Use the hotel recommender to compare options for your group.

After Son Vida: Son Vida Restaurant. Tapas beside the 18th green make it a straightforward lunch stop on day 6, with no extra drive between golf and lunch.

A Palma dinner: Marc Fosh. Contemporary Mediterranean cooking in the old Convent de la Missió. Open Tuesday to Saturday. Plan a longer dinner on an evening without a long drive back from golf, and book a table ahead.

Prices are planning indications, not quotes. Variable rates change by date and demand. Confirm access and exact prices before booking.

Before booking

Confirm the group's handicaps, dates, hotel, walking or buggy needs, and a budget per person. Prices above are green fees, not a whole-trip price. I plan and book the golf. For hotels, transfers and other arrangements, I work with a local travel partner. We agree the scope, prices and who handles each part before booking.

Send your dates and group details. For another example, read the five-round Palma itinerary.